6. The ball rolls down the sidewalk of my street. The skateboard rolls down the sidewalk of my street.
Grammar: Combining Sentences: Predicate Nouns

Read each pair of sentences. Circle the predicate noun in each sentence. Then combine the sentences by using the word and to join the two predicate nouns.

1. The woman is an actress. The woman is a waitress.

2. My dog seemed like a statue. He seemed like a rock.

3. I am a student. I am a volunteer.

4. My parents are citizens. My parents are community leaders.

5. He has been a doctor in the past. He has been a lawyer in the past.

6. They are my cousins. They are my best friends.
Read each sentence. On the line, write whether the underlined word or words are a phrase, an appositive, or an interjection. Then rewrite the sentence using correct punctuation.

1. Eli a strong soccer player scored the most goals.
   ________________

2. Once upon a time there was a beautiful princess.
   ________________

3. The secretary a fast typist finished the letter quickly.
   ________________
